

Future Talent

The UK's flagship charity
supporting gifted young musicians
from low income backgrounds

*Do you have a musical talent but need support,
guidance and financial help?*

Mentoring, Advice, Performance Opportunities and Bursaries from £1,000 – £5,000

futuretalent.org

'Without the funding and opportunities that Future Talent has provided over the last four years, it would not have been possible for Alex to have achieved all that he has in music. Your support has opened many doors, which would otherwise be unimaginable.'

Mrs Wilson, Parent

There are four levels of support:

Worsley Bursary

Up to £3,000 over three years
(ages 5–15)

Robinson Bursary

Up to £1,000 over a year
(ages 16–18)

Bramall Scholarship

Up to £2,000 a year
Musicians residing in Yorkshire and North of England only
(ages 5–18)

Coombs Scholarship

£5,000 available to one musician
(ages 16–18)

futuretalent.org
33 Cavendish Square
London, W1G 0PW

Facebook Future Talent
Twitter @FutureTalentUK

COULD YOU BE THE NEXT RECIPIENT OF A FUTURE TALENT BURSARY?

Future Talent has 10 years' experience, finding, funding and nurturing talented young instrumentalists and singers from across the UK, offering financial support as well as mentoring, advice and a variety of performance and development opportunities. Future Talent Musicians have performed at venues such as: Ronnie Scott's, Tate Modern, Westminster Abbey and the House of Lords. Many have subsequently attended one of the UK's prestigious music conservatoires.

HOW CAN I APPLY?

The application process is now open. Future Talent supports talented young musicians from low income backgrounds. You will need to complete an application form – there are also guidelines designed to help you, available from the Charity's website futuretalent.org. Each application, including a video or audio recording and a brief reference from your music tutor/school music teacher, should be submitted to Future Talent by Monday 11 January 2016. Shortlisted applicants will be invited to an audition in either London or Manchester in the spring.

For further information contact:
admin@futuretalent.org
020 7182 4676

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Future Talent is grateful to the trusts, foundations and individuals who support its Mentoring, Career Advice and Bursary Programme. Visit futuretalent.org for a full list of supporters. Registered Charity number: 1107747

