

Musokumbenfoli Song

This is Musokumbenfoli, or music for the journey of the bride as she brings all her possessions to the marriage at her new home.

Her journey is celebrated in the villages, though not in cities, and in the village of Kourouba it's another occasion for which the Nyagba rhythm is played, with gunshots fired into the air on the dundun's press notes. Resources by Hans Sutton from lessons with Drissa Kone and Baga Doumbouya in Kourouba.

Lyrics

Lyrics in blue = leader

Lyrics in red = group

Aye bo, aye bo muso-olu

Aye bo solen so bara na

Aye bo, aye bo muso-olu,

aye bo solen so bara na

Aye bo, kourouba musolu, aye bo

(na) sanunta muso bara na

Aye bo, aye bo muso-olu,

aye bo solen so bara na

Aye bo, aye bo muso-olu

Aye bo (na) warita muso bara na

Aye bo, aye bo muso-olu,

aye bo solen so bara na